Professor Schmidt and his assistant Dr Polotsky are heartily to be congratulated on their great discovery. It would be ungrateful to conclude without a word of recognition of the work of Dr Ibscher, to whose capable hands has been entrusted the delicate task of detaching and mounting the tattered leaves.

A MANUSCRIPT OF ST AUGUSTINE AT PERTH, SCOTLAND

SOME years ago a small but interesting collection of Latin manuscripts was presented to St John's Church, Perth,<sup>1</sup> by the Rev. John Stirton, D.D., Minister of Crathie and Domestic Chaplain to the King. Dr Stirton was led to make these gifts by his love for his native city, and the same impulse leads me to record the existence of one of the manuscripts there, lest it should escape the notice of interested parties. I have to thank the authorities of the church for lending the manuscript concerned to the University Library, Aberdeen, where I have been able to study it at leisure.

The manuscript, which was acquired by Dr Stirton in August 1919, is in a calf binding at least two centuries old and the outer and top edges are somewhat clipped. It bears old shelfmarks D. 1. 21, and No. 3. ll. 2. sh. 6, these being in different hands. The present measurements are mm. 164 x 118, and the written area measures mm. 109 x 71. The manuscript may be assigned to the second half of the thirteenth century. The present number of folia is 124, and these have never been numbered. The vellum is sometimes thick, sometimes thin, and the sheets have been arranged correctly, flesh side next flesh side and hair side next hair side, but no quaternion signatures are present. There is a table of contents on fol. 2 in a fifteenth-century hand. Two scribes took part in writing the manuscript. There are red subscriptions and blue initial letters. Chapter numbers are sometimes indicated in the margin, and occasionally there are catchwords. The lines are ruled in the usual way, and the number to the page varies between 23 and 31.

The contents are as follows:—

- f. 3r. Incipit epistola<sup>2</sup> prima beati Augustini ad inquisitiones Ianuarii presbyteri. Dilectissimo filio Ianuario Augustinus in domino salutem.

<sup>1</sup> See St John's Kirk, Perth, a History by Thomas Hunter, J.P. (Perth, 1932), for an excellent account of this ancient place of worship.

De hiis que me interrogasti, mallem prius nosse (= epist. 54, CSEL xxxiiii 158) — (f. 6r) alia quae interrogasti si dominus voluerit alio tempore expediam. Explicit epistola prima.
